

Shaping Tomorrow's Law on the Strength of Tradition - A joint celebration

Swiss Institute of Comparative Law
February 5th 2025

17:30 Welcome by Prof. Nadjma Yassari, Director of the Swiss Institute of Comparative law

Launch of the Just Bonding Project

17:45 Presentation by Dr. Tine van Hof, University of Antwerp (remote)

18:15 The Best Interest of the Child in Filiation Matters: Current Developments,
Dr. Rachele Zamperini, Swiss Institute of Comparative Law

18:45 Q&A moderated by the PI and co-PI of the project, Ilaria Pretelli, Swiss Institute of Comparative Law and Thalia Kruger, University of Antwerpen

Twenty-Five Years of the Yearbook of Private International Law

19:00 Panel Discussion with Prof. Anatol Dutta (University of Munich), Prof. Cristina González Beilfuss (University of Barcelona), Hans van Loon (former Secretary General of the Hague Conference), Prof. Maarit Jänterä-Jareborg (Uppsala University) and the editors Prof. Andrea Bonomi (University of Lausanne), Dr. hab. Ilaria Pretelli (Swiss Institute of Comparative Law) and Prof. Gian Paolo Romano (University of Geneva).

20:00 Cocktail offered by and at the Swiss Institute of Comparative Law

Participation is free of charge, but registration is compulsory.
The event will take place at the Swiss Institute of Comparative Law in Lausanne and online. It will be followed by a cocktail.